TIOGA COUNTY LOCALS.

Happenings of General Interest in This County.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Viel, of Blossburg, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Monday, January 1.

Miss Marie Crooks and Harry E. Brewster, both of Blossburg, were married by Rev. W. T. Henry, at the First Baptist church parsonage in Elmira, on Tuesday evening, January 2.

—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed by A. Schater, a grocer of Blossburg. Mr. Schater came to Blossburg from Rochester a few months ago. The liabilities are given at $3,000, and the assets at $1,200 or $1,500.

—The members of the Dairymen's League will convene at Lawrenceville Grange hall, Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 10:30 a. m., to effect a county organization. Prominent members from New York will be present. All members are urged to be present.

—Bishop Hoban has assigned Rev. Joseph Losieniecki, of Blossburg, a newly ordained priest, to St. Mary's Polish church in Wilkes-Barre, and Rev. Aloysius Nowak, also of Blossburg, and ordained at the same time, to the Sacred Heart church in South Scranton.

—Miss Elizabeth Allen, aged 17 years, died at the Blossburg hospital last Wednesday evening, after an illness of several days. Besides her mother, Mrs. H. B. Allen, she is survived by one sister, Millicent Allen, and three brothers, Phillip, Keath and Raymond. Funeral services were held Saturday; burial in Trumansburg, N. Y.

—David Brown, a trustee of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage at Sunbury, whose home is in Elkland, and Mrs. Dale, head of the sewing department of the institution, were married recently. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Leidy, in the parlors of the orphanage. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chubbuck, who are the heads of the institution.

—Handwriting proved an effectual aid in identifying the stranger who was decapitated on the New York Central Railroad at Torbert Tuesday night. The only clue to identification was a notebook found in the man's pocket bearing the name "Robert Anderson, Arnot, Pa." Dr. W. E. Delaney, county coroner, who investigated the case, learned that a man by that name was a resident of Arnot and that he had two sisters living in Corning. The women were unable to go to Jersey Shore, where the body had been taken, so Dr. Delaney directed that the note book be sent to them at Corning. He has received word that they recognized the handwriting in the book as that of their brother. They directed that the body be sent to Corning, which was done Friday.
